THE FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES owned and used The Encyclopaedia Britannica, 3rd Edition, in its original bulky, unwieldy form, printed on old-fashioned THICK PAPER which necessitated a large, awkward book that had to be supported upon a table.

AVOID EXCESS.

Keep up your spirits by good thoughts, enjoy the pleasant company of your best friends, but in all enjoyments be temperate. In this regard wisdom dictates that your rule of life be moderation.

TRAVEL

See the travel literature at the Gazette Travel Bureau. Large supply of beautiful booklets and scenic literature just received at the Gazette office.

THE 28th PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES has the advantage of using The Encyclopaedia Britannica, 11th Edition, which contains 809 more reading matter, but is printed on thin INDIA PAPER and is as easy to hold and read as a magazine.

IN 1797 the stage coach traveling between Philadelphia and New York took two days to cover the ninety miles. IN 1917 the Pennsylvania Railroad Express, over practically the same route, makes the run in two hours.

IN 1797 it meant a four-hour drive by horse and carriage from Perth to the Golf Club at St. Andrew's. IN 1917 you can easily motor over the same twenty-five miles under the hour.

IN 1797 a sailing vessel often took three months to make the voyage from New York to Liverpool. IN 1917 the Mauretania can make the same trip in just over five days.

There is just as much difference between The Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on old-fashioned thick paper, and the new Britannica, "Handy Volume" Issue, printed on genuine India paper, as there is between the stage coach of 1797 and the Philadelphia Express of 1917; between the horse and carriage, traveling eight miles an hour, and the modern motor, traveling 50 miles an hour; between the sailing vessel and the ocean steamship.

If you want the old-fashioned stage coach-horse and carriage-sailing vessel kind of an Encyclopaedia Britannica you need not be in any hurry to buy now. You can get the heavy, bulky, thick paper Britannica at any time.

But if you want the modern "Handy Volume" Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, you must order at once.

The sets of the "Handy Volume" Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, now in stock are all that we can get. These are going at the rate of more than 2000 sets a week. The end of this sale is almost here. When the last set is sold no one will be able to buy the Britannica in this, its handiest form, at any price. No more can be printed. We cannot get another set from the publishers, because they positively cannot get any more of the genuine India paper. No more India paper can be made because two necessary raw materials—flax from Belgium, Germany or Ireland and hemp from Russia—because of the war, are now absolutely unobtainable, and no more can be secured for many years.

Note:—This also means that no more of the Cambridge University issue of the Britannica and Century Dictionary can be had on genuine India paper.

We could probably sell many thousands more sets of the "Handy Volume" Issue of The Encyclopaedia Britannica if we could get them. As this sale nears the end we are receiving, daily, thousands of inquiries asking for information about the "Handy Volume" Britannica on this wonderful India paper.

When we announce the last day on which orders can possibly be filled we know that many orders will be sent in that we cannot supply sets for.

Jas. Sutherland & Sons

Those who cannot go to this store may use this "Reserve" Order Form, which will reserve one set for you, just the same as if you ordered it in person.

Passion wins youth from intoxication in the great allegorical play "Experience" at Myers Theatre, Thursday evening, May 10.

News Notes from Movieland

—BY DAISY DEAN—

MARY PICKFORD explaining the mysteries of the movie camera to Count Alva Tolstoy.

While recently touring the west, Count Alva Tolstoy, son of Russia's most famous novelist, stopped off in Los Angeles to pay his respects to Mary Pickford, America's most popular little movie queen. Miss Pickford explained in detail the mysteries of the movie studio to the Russian nobleman, who was deeply interested. He paid Mary a great compliment by telling her that she was quite as popular in Russia as she is in the United States. At which Mary smiled and shook her curls.

AW THAT'S EASY, FANNIE.
Fannie Ward's difficulties are rapidly increasing. She made such a splendid success playing single roles that it was decided she was not ready to undertake anything like her entire histrionic capacity. Now she is cast in three different roles in one picture.

AMUSEMENTS

(Notices furnished by the theatres.)

MYERS THEATRE.
One of the most important theatrical announcements that has been made in this city for some years is the "Experience" organization, which will come to the Myers theatre. The engagement will be for Thursday evening, May 10.

William Elliott, P. Ray Comstock and Morris Cost, the producers of the play, will send to this city the famous New York "Experience" organization, with its cast of eighty-two notable characters. The play has broken all records of success by runs of nine months in New York, five months in Boston and seven months in Chicago. In these cities they say that no attraction has ever had such a galaxy of beautiful young girls, and their charm and grace has set a rare standard of fascinating femininity for the stage.

"Experience" is a brilliant pageant of ten spectacular scenes and tells the love story of Youth, his ambition, his temptation, his failure and his ultimate victory. Yet the word pageant, the papers say, fails to describe the play, even as the word drama fails utterly to give an idea of the varied brilliancy and optical scope of "Experience." It is said to be everything that is spectacular, brilliant and beautiful in the modern stage production, combined with all that is intense, emotional and thrillingly dramatic. It is a vivid modern drama with a simple story that goes with unswerving directness from the first act to the last. "Experience" is highly commended by the clergy of all denominations. In Chicago the Rev. R. Keene Ryan said: "There is a mighty moral taught and taught in 'Experience'." While in New York Rev. Dr. Frank Crane said: "I adored the 'Sign of the Cross,' 'The Passing of the Third Floor Back,' 'I Love Experience'."

MYERS THEATRE.
To hear Miss Mary Kessel sing "A Loving Home for Two," "The Absent One" and "Why Not Make America Queen of the Sea?" in "The Teasers" is to experience an unlimited delight. Miss Kessel acts with a charm and spirit that is ever refreshing. As a Japanese girl in the last act she is a picture rare to behold and her singing of my absent one invariably thrills her listeners. Her wonderful contralto voice is admirably displayed in the closing bars of this song, "Ah, Let Me Prove How Much I Love My Absent One."

Marie Cahill, newest movie recruit from vaudeville, says she makes her own hats.

At one studio a trained nurse has been added to the official staff to look after the women and children.

Two sisters and the mother. "But the script calls for the mother to carry the two sisters out of a burning building," laments Phyllis, "and how am I going to do it?"

"Intolerance" is said to have won seven minutes of applause from an audience at the Drury Lane theatre in London.

An Italian audience in a Rome theatre burst into cheers for America at a showing of the movie "Invasion of America."

DEPARTMENT ORDER AFFECTS STUDENTS

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 8.—Due to recent orders from the War Department, the students of the University of Wisconsin who enlisted to go to Fort Sheridan May 15 are undecided as to what plan to follow. The recent ruling of the War Department to the effect that every man must receive his acceptance from Chicago, and that only the older men are wanted at the camp, has led many to decide to remain in Madison and complete the course being given here.

About two hundred men on the eligible list to go to the training camp until the order, which will decrease the number materially. Many men who are juniors are not old enough to secure a commission under the plans of the War Department, who desire men at least twenty-one years old to receive a commission. The members of the faculty, seniors and those taking post-graduate work will be eligible to go. The men will leave Madison Saturday on a special train in order to arrive on time for the opening of the course on Monday.

Monday afternoon the troops took a ten mile walk in the vicinity of Madison, under the command of a sergeant. The walk was unexpected by the men, who were forced to walk twenty miles around Lake Mendota Saturday. It is the plan of Major Craigh to give the men two or three long hikes a week, so they will be in condition when the time comes for them to go into the service.

Wednesday the cadet corps, composed of the members of the freshman and sophomore classes, will hold their annual competitive drill contests. The sophomore companies will drill in the morning and the freshmen in the afternoon. The decisions in the review will be made by United States army officers. On the following Saturday a morning drill will be staged with the sophomores defending the city of Madison against the freshmen, who will attack from the west side of the city.

Thirty more students have been approved by the council of war of the university and they will leave at once for their work on farms and factories of the country. These men proved more for the country than at the school, so the council decided to give them credit for their work until the end of the semester while they are in the increased production of the country. This makes a total of eight hundred students who have discontinued their school work and are enlisted in some form of work. They will enter a naval school to train for the revenue cutter service of coast defense. A large number have also enlisted in the regular army.

Whitewater News

Whitewater, May 8.—The regular meeting of the City Federation of Clubs was held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the Congregational church. Mrs. J. H. Waldo, president of the federation, presided. There was a good attendance and an interesting session followed. The secretary called the roll by clubs. The following reports were given: Mrs. G. C. Butts for the Audubon committee; Mrs. E. T. Cass, the work of the civic committee; and Mrs. P. Tyrrell, the work of the health committee. Mrs. Cass, as chairman of the nominating committee, then reported and the election of officers for next year followed. The matter of electing a president was left until another meeting. Mrs. R. H. Dixon was elected vice president and Miss Anna Fuller secretary and treasurer. Reports of the convention at Beloit were then given by Mrs. Salisbury Mrs. "en" James and Miss Sarah Niquet.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haight and little son of Galesburg, Ill., came yesterday afternoon to the home of their aunt, Miss Alice Haight. Last evening they went to Uiter's Corners to visit G. W. Hull and family.

Mrs. Herman Fray and little daughter of Brodhead are here visiting their friends, before moving to their home in Seymour, Wis., where Mr. Franske was given the appointment to preach the coming year.

Dr. and Mrs. I. N. Morton arrived from Tampa, Florida, Saturday to spend the summer at the Wheeler home.

Clegg W. Maxwell and Miss Frances E. Burleigh were married by Rev. A. J. Weaver on Sunday, May 6. The young people have been students at the Morris Pratt institute, and will make their home in the First ward.

Mr. Tarrie Longer, as he donned his shoes, looked regretfully at the gaping hole in the sole of one, at the frittered heel of the other.

"Oh, well," he soliloquized philosophically, "what can't be helped must be borne and grinned at."
And, donning each in turn, he bore and grinned at his threadbare shirt with barely threaded buttons, his tattered and patterned collar and tie.
"Ukulele, are you ready?" he called.

Mrs. Tarrie Longer joined him. She was donned in two ragged left-foot shoes, last year's hat and a gown of holes and patches.
"How do I look, Tarrie?" she asked timorously.

"As well as I do, at least," he replied with a show of brightness. "But as I always say, what can't be borne—at I mean, what can't be borne—oh, you can't maintain a fashionable motor car on $3,000 a year and expect to dress, too."

And the Tarrie Longers went out for a spin in their 1918-model Flibbertigibbet.

MACHINE RUNS OFF BRIDGE BUT WATERTOWN MEN ESCAPE

A party of Watertown men, en route home from Delavan Sunday afternoon, had a miraculous escape from death when their automobile ran off the Uley bridge, a short distance from Delavan. The machine landed in the bottom of the ditch some feet below. All the occupants were thrown from the car, and one man was badly cut when he fell through the windshield. The automobile was badly smashed. The men went to Delavan to find a way to get home.

The Cardinals are getting first class pitching and also are batting heavily. These qualities combined win ball games.
